Hello from the Mayor's office!

City Hall will be Closed on December 24th and 25th in observance of Christmas. City Hall will also be Closed on January 1st, 2020 for New Year's Day. Meet the Mayor will be on January 13th and 20th from 9am to 10am at City Hall. Welcome new council members Lana Robison and Nathan Shepard. Thank you to Rodney Haerther and Tim Harbach for your years of service on the Atkins City Council.

We have some extra visitors that will be in the City of Atkins to do different types of work!
- Alliant Energy and affiliated Companies are in the City to put electrical lines that are currently overhead and relocate them underground. This is to decrease power outages. Some residents may get direct correspondence from Alliant Energy.

- Benton County Assessors will be in the City to get new assessments on homes in this city.
- U.S. Census Bureau will be in the city to do work related to the US Census that is done every 10 years.

Regards, Bruce Visser, Mayor

Atkins Public Works

- Please do not overstuff your Solid Waste/Recycle containers. Large sizes may be available. Call City Hall to inquire.
- Please make sure to have three feet in between your Recycle and Solid Waste Containers.
- Yard Waste Pickup is finished for the year. Yard Waste pickup will resume in April.

Atkins Public Library

The Library will be hosting a Fancy Nancy Party!

Saturday, January 11th from 10 am to 11 am.

Come dressed in your most exquisite attire and be ready to celebrate just like Fancy Nancy! Try new activities. Go on an adventure with Nancy and see what Girl Scouts all is about! GirlScoutsToday.org or call 800-798-0833.

Thanks to the Girl Scouts for decorating the Library for the holiday season.

Reading a good book by an author that the Atkins Library doesn't have...please let us know so that he/she can be added to our collection. We are always looking for authors that are new to our library and your suggestions are always appreciated.

Please call the Atkins Library at 319-446-7676 early to reserve the City Park Pavilion. Reservations may be made, and payment received up to one year in advance.
